The grant recipient of the National Endowment for the Arts, this contemporary Greek play is inspired by the playwright's Greek grandmother and her childhood memories prior to her immigration to the US in 1915. Family secrets, and intergenerational dynamics are woven into the lives of four generations of women whose family line reaches back to the heroic women of Zalongo.

2022 Semi-finalist: Eugene O'Neil National Playwrights Conference

The play is being presented in collaboration with the Basil P. Caloyeras Center and under the auspices of the General Secretariat for Greeks Abroad and Public Diplomacy of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Embassy of Greece in Washington, DC, and Consulate General of Greece in Los Angeles.
